Vincent M. Ignizio, Deputy Executive Director
Georgea Kontzamanis, Operations Manager
Michael D. Corbett, Administrative Manager
Grace Pyun, General Counsel
Raphael Savino, Deputy General Counsel
Steven B. Denkberg, Counsel to the Commissioners
Kenneth Moltner, Counsel to the Commissioners

*Commissioner Coppotelli appeared remotely, but not at a publicly accessible location, and therefore did not cast any votes.

Vincent M. Ignizio, Deputy Executive Director, opened the meeting with the Commissioners' roll call and introduction of staff.

It was noted that Commissioners Landis and Shamoun had not yet joined the meeting but were expected to join shortly.

Before continuing with the meeting agenda, Mr. Ignizio made the following announcements:

- Election Day is November 3, 2026, and the early voting period runs from Saturday, October 24th through Sunday, November 1st. Early Voting hours and poll site locations, including sample ballots, can be found on the Board's website at vote.nyc.
- The Board has a total of 5,400,565 eligible voters for this election cycle.
- The Board will open a total of 157 early voting sites and 1,207 Election Day polling sites, deploying 86,902 pieces of equipment: 12,580 for early voting and 74,322 for Election Day.
- Sixty-three early voting sites require generators, which will be delivered and installed on October 20 and 21, 2026.
- All voting equipment logic and accuracy testing is on schedule and is set to be completed by October 23, 2026.
- Deliveries of tables, chairs, and privacy booths will begin on October 19th, followed by early voting equipment on October 22nd and 23rd, and Election Day equipment during the week of October 26th.

- Training, both in person and online, and assignments are ongoing for both Election Day and early voting.
- The Board currently has a total of 33,738 poll worker positions and expects to meet its staffing needs for the election.
- In addition, we are on track to have enough interpreters trained to fill all required spots.
- The Board continues to process all other absentee ballots. To date, the Board has received, processed, and mailed 162,682 ballots, including 194 accessible ballots. The Board has received back 25,286 ballots, of which 22,757 have been deemed valid and canvassed. A total of 1,021 ballots have been deemed invalid, and the cure process is ongoing. The remaining ballots are being canvassed as the process continues.
- October 24, 2026, is the last day to apply online for an absentee ballot.
- As a reminder, November 2, 2026, is the last day to apply for an absentee ballot in person.

- The last day to register to vote for the November General Election is October 24, 2026. All timely registrations will be processed and included in the poll books for the upcoming election.

Mr. Ignizio continued with item #1 of the meeting agenda, the approval of the minutes of the September 29, 2026 Commissioners' Meeting.

Hearing no objections, the minutes of the September 29, 2026 Commissioners' Meeting were adopted as submitted.

Mr. Ignizio continued with item #2 of the meeting agenda, an Executive Session for Personnel Matters.

Prior to convening the Executive Session, Mr. Ignizio asked the Commissioners to set the date for the next meeting for Tuesday, October 27, 2026.

Commissioner Araujo moved to set the date of the next meeting for Tuesday, October 27, 2026, at 1:00 PM. Commissioner Umame seconded the motion, which was adopted unanimously.

It was noted for the record that Commissioners Landis and Shamoun had both joined the meeting.

Secretary Marmorato moved to adjourn the regular stated meeting of the Board of Commissioners in the City of New York and convene an Executive Session to discuss Personnel Matters. Commissioner Landis seconded the motion, which was adopted unanimously.

Following the Executive Session, the open meeting resumed.

During the Executive Session, the following actions were taken by the unanimous decision of the Board of Commissioners:

- Philip Kebreau, a Senior Voting Machine Technician, was granted 210 hours of Sick Time. Mr. Kebreau's agency start date is July 17, 2011, and he is a Bronx Republican.
- Marianne Noce, an Administrative Assistant, was granted 210 hours of Sick Time. Ms. Noce's agency start date is August 5, 2007, and she is a Staten Island Democrat.

The meeting was adjourned.

The next meeting of the Commissioners of Elections will be held on Tuesday,
October 27, 2026, at 1:00 P.M.
